STATEMENT FROM SCONE LITERARY FESTIVAL RE MAJOR PLOT TWIST FOR 'LITE'

"We'll be ready, when you're ready", said Janie Jordan, President of the Scone Literary Festival in announcing the cancellation of its 'lite' festival planned for March 12 & 13 due to ongoing anxiety and uncertainty around COVID.

"Whenever that is, and whatever that looks like, we're not sure yet", said Ms Jordan.

"What we can guarantee is this – what we hold and when we hold it will not only be a celebration of words with great conversation with great people but be fun and safe.

"The timing is absolutely critical. Clearly, people are still anxious, tentative and fearful."

The energetic and hard-working SLF Committee will go back to the drawing board to plot and plan.

As they say, watch this space!
